PUBLIC NOTICE
Palm Beach County Commission on Affordable Housing
In accordance with F.S. 420.9076,
Palm Beach County's Commission
on Affordable Housing (CAH) has conducted a review of the County's established policies and procedures,
ordinances, land development regulations, and comprehensive plan,
and has recommended specific actions or initiatives to encourage or facilitate affordable housing. The draft Affordable Housing Incentives
Review and Recommendations
Report, 2023, is available for review
at the Palm Beach County Department of Housing and Economic Development (HED) website:
https://discour.pbcgov.org/HED/Pa ges/Commission-on-Affordable-Hous-PUBLIC NOTICE

ges/Commission-on-Affordable-Hous-ing.aspx Draft recommendations in 12 incentive areas are summarized as follow:

1. The processing of approvals of development orders or permits for affordable housing projects is expedited to a greater degree than other projects. Recommendation: other projects. Recommendation: The County should continue current efforts towards expediting development approvals and building and building affordable housing permits projects. Expedited approval should offered to all projects with at ast 65% of total housing units affordable/workforce. The CAH strongly recommends that the County create a position or desig-nate an individual to be responsible for and to shepherd development applications through the approval

2. All allowable fee waivers provided for the development or construction of affordable housing. Recommendation: The County should maintain its current incen-

itive strategy.

3. The allowance of flexibility in densities for affordable housing.

Recommendation: See "Flexible Zoning" #12.

Recommendation: See "Flexible Zoning" #12.

4. The reservation of infrastructure capacity for housing for very-low-income persons, low-income persons, and moderate-income persons. Recommendation: The County should maintain its current incentive strategy.

5. Affordable accessory residential units. Recommendation: The County should address restrictions on ADUs in order to allow for greater opportunity, including requirements for an electrical feed from the main home. ADUs should not be counted as a separate housing unit for purposes of density calculations.

6. The reduction of parking and setback requirements for affordable housing. Recommendation: See "Flexible Zoning" #12.

7. The allowance of flexible loconfigurations, including zero-lot-line configurations for affordable housing. Recommendation. See housing. Recommendation: "Flexible Zoning" #12. 8. The modification of street requirements for affordable hous-ing. Recommendation: The County should maintain its current incentive strategy. 9. The establishment of a process

tive strategy.

9. The establishment of a process by which a local government considers, before adoption, policies, procedures, ordinances, regulations, or plan provisions that increase the cost of housing.

Recommendation: The County should develop a plan of action to take advantage of opportunities presented by the Live Local Act.

10. The preparation of a printed inventory of locally owned public lands suitable for affordable housing. Recommendation: The County should make available online a regularly-updated inventory of all County-owned properties, and offer a clear process for disposition so that private industry and not-for-profit organizations can utilize available lands for the development of affordable and workforce housing.

11. The support of development near transportation hubs and maior employment centers and mixed-use developments. Recommendation: The County should maintain its current incentive strategy.

egy. 12. Flexible Zoning. Recommenda-
