ICE CREAM SUNDAY EVENT WITH COMM. ABRAMS

Public Invited To Attend

Commissioner Steven Abrams announced he is holding a constituent gathering on Sunday, March 13 at 2:30 p.m. at Sloan's Ice Cream at Mizner Park, 329 Plaza Real, Boca Raton.

"I hereby proclaim Ice Cream Sunday," Abrams said, in a not-so-subtle reference to his recent opposition to an effort to declare "Meatless Mondays" in Palm Beach County.

All are invited to sit down with the commissioner over a bowl of ice cream to discuss county issues. Dutch treat.

Constituents are encouraged to attend and raise any issues they wish from controversial to plain vanilla.

The location is also close to the City Library, which will be open until 6:30 p.m. for the last day of Early Voting prior to the March 15 primary. Afterwards, Abrams welcomes anyone who desires to join him to walk over to vote.

Depending on the turnout, Commissioner Abrams says he may be inclined to hold additional Ice Cream Sundays in other parts of his district.
