

CJC's Law Enforcement Planning Council hosts a law enforcement coordination meeting with Acting U.S. Attorney Benjamin Greenberg

The annual law enforcement coordination meeting with the Acting U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida (Key West to St. Lucie) Benjamin Greenberg was held on August 24, 2017. Over 60 law enforcement officials from local, state, and federal partners attended to discuss concerns about coordination. A main topic of discussion was the opioid issue. Adam McMichael, Assistant U.S. Attorney, presented an overview of their Violence Reduction Project. Gera Peoples, Special Council to the U.S. Attorney, addressed civil rights enforcement.

Acting U.S. Attorney Benjamin Greenberg has the microphone in the picture below. State Attorney Dave Aronberg is right next to him.
