

Paddling

Palm Beach County has miles of fresh and saltwater blueways that offer paddlers unique ecosystems to explore. Pick your next paddling adventure at one of these sites that has canoe and kayak opportunities.

Guide - Plan a journey

Paddling Treasures, Lake Worth Lagoon and Loxahatchee River Estuary *

Lake Worth Lagoon –restored habitats in Palm Beach County’s largest estuary

Munyon Island, North Palm Beach †

Accessible from John D. MacArthur Beach State Park, 10900 Jack Nicklaus Drive

Peanut Island, Riviera Beach †

Accessible from Riviera Beach Marina, 200 East 13th Street and Phil Foster Park, 900 East Blue Heron Boulevard

Snook Islands, Lake Worth *

100 North Golfview Road

Freshwater Chain of Lakes – 30 miles of naturally connected freshwater lakes

Lake Osborne, Lake Worth †

Accessible from John Prince Park, 2520 Lake Worth Road

Lake Ida, Delray Beach †

Accessible from Lake Ida West Park, 1455 Lake Ida Road

Natural Areas - Visit a site

Delaware Scrub, Jupiter †

47 N. Delaware Boulevard

Jupiter Inlet, Tequesta †

North side of Beach Road, ¼ mile east of U.S. Highway 1

Jupiter Ridge, Jupiter †

1800 South U.S. Highway 1

Limestone Creek, Jupiter *

6570 Church Street

Pine Glades, Jupiter *

14122 West Indiantown Road

Juno Dunes, Juno Beach †

14501 S. U.S. Highway 1

Loxahatchee Slough, Palm Beach Gardens †

8175 PGA Boulevard

Winding Waters, West Palm Beach *

6161 Haverhill Road

*Dedicated launch near parking lot

†Hike in with kayak to launch from shoreline

Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners
Department of Environmental Resources Management