Overview of the Aggressive/Dangerous/Vicious Dog Investigation Process:

 No dog shall be legally classified without a sworn statement submitted by a witness to the incident being investigated.

1. Dog-to-human bite cases and dog-to-domestic animal attacks are reviewed by a Dangerous Dog Coordinator (DDC). This investigation may run beyond the quarantine period.
   a. If the dog is impounded at Animal Care and Control (ACC) for quarantine for a human bite, the dog may be required to stay at ACC after the 10-day quarantine period until the investigation is complete. Contact the DDC about the status of your case prior to trying to redeem your dog.
   b. If the dog remains with the owner during the investigation, the dog shall not be relocated or ownership transferred pending the outcome of the investigation and any appeal proceeding. If the owner moves while the investigation/case is still open, he/she must contact the DDC beforehand to advise of the new address.

2. The DDC reviews the reports, photographs, medical records and witness statements to determine if an “Aggressive”, “Dangerous” or “Vicious” classification is warranted according to Ordinance 98-22 Section 27 and/or Chapter 767, Fla. Stat. The DDC will contact the owner of the dog to be classified if a classification is pursued.

3. If a classification is warranted, an “Intent to Classify” letter must be delivered to the dog owner by registered mail, certified hand delivery or service of process.

4. The options available to the owner are determined by the level of classification and will be explained to the owner. Additional fees may apply for some classifications.

5. If the owner files an appeal, a hearing will be scheduled at ACC within 5 – 21 calendar days from the appeal date. All parties will be notified of an appeal hearing.
