FOR CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS; PROVIDING FOR ISSUANCE OF NOTICES TO APPEAR; PROVIDING FOR REPEAL AND SAVINGS CLAUSE; PROVIDING FOR APPLICABILITY; PROVIDING FOR ENFORCEMENT; PROVIDING FOR SEVERABILITY; PROVIDING FOR INCLUSION IN CODE OF LAWS AND ORDINANCES; PROVIDING FOR EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the business of construction and building improvements is a matter substantially affecting the public interest; and

WHEREAS, in order to protect the health, safety and welfare of the public, it is necessary to ensure that individuals engaged in the construction industry are duly qualified and that construction is done according to code; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 489.127, a county may enforce the provisions of Fla.
Stat. § 489.127(1) and § 489.132(1) against persons who engage in activity for which a county license or state certification or registration is required; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 489.531(3), a county may enforce the provisions of Fla.
Stat. § 489.531(1) against persons who engage in activity for which a county certification is required;
and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 489.127(5) and § 489.531(3), a county is authorized to enforce codes and ordinances against unlicensed contractors and may enact an ordinance establishing procedures for implementing same; and

WHEREAS, Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended, authorizes the Construction Industry Licensing Board of Palm Beach County ("CILB") to oversee local licensure of contractors and discipline of same; and

WHEREAS, Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended, declares it unlawful for any person to engage in the business of contracting without the required local certificate of competency;
and

WHEREAS, Palm Beach County desires to protect the public by restricting and penalizing construction activities performed by unlicensed contractors and to enforce the provisions of Fla. Stat.
Chapter 489 and Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA that:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS.

As used herein, the following terms shall have the meaning described. Any term not defined herein shall have the meaning found in Fla. Stat. Chapter 489 and/or Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended.

A. "Certificate" or "License" shall mean a current valid Certificate of Competency issued by the CILB pursuant to Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended, or a certificate issued by the state of Florida pursuant to Fla. Stat. Chapter 489.

B. "Certificate holder" or "Licensee" shall mean that contractor who holds a current, valid certificate issued by the CILB or the state of Florida.

C. "CILB" shall mean the Construction Industry Licensing Board of Palm Beach County, as established by Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended.

D. "Contractor" shall mean the person who is qualified for and responsible for an entire project contracted for and means (except as exempted by Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as amended) the person who, for compensation, undertakes to, submits a bid to, or does him/herself or by others construct, repair, alter, remodel, add to, subtract from, or improve any building or structure, including related improvements to real estate, for others or for resale to others. A contractor shall hold a license or certificate as provided by law before bidding or performing work requiring such license or certificate.

E. "Code Enforcement officer" or "investigator" shall mean those persons designated by Palm Beach County Contractors Certification Division for enforcement of the regulations contained in Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, Fla. Stat. Chapter 489, and this ordinance.

F. "Registrant" shall mean that contractor who holds a license issued by the CILB and who has registered with the state of Florida pursuant to Fla. Stat. Chapter 489.

G. "Special Act" shall mean Laws of Florida, Chapter 67-1876, as may be amended.
SECTION 2. PROHIBITIONS.

A. No person shall:

1. falsely hold himself/herself or a business organization out as a licensee, certificate holder, or registrant;

2. falsely impersonate a certificate holder, or registrant;

3. present as his/her own the certificate or registration of another;

4. knowingly give false or forged evidence to the CILB or member thereof;

5. use or attempt to use a certificate or registration which has been suspended or revoked;

6. engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor or advertise himself/herself or a business organization as available to engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor without being duly registered or certified.

7. operate a business organization engaged in contracting after 60 days following the termination of its only qualifying agent without designating another primary qualifying agent, except as provided in Fla. Stat. §489.119 and §489.1195;

8. commence or perform work for which a building permit is required pursuant to the adopted state minimum building code without such building permit being in effect;

9. willfully or deliberately disregard any county ordinance related to uncertified or unregistered contractors.

B. No person shall:

1. engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor without having met the provisions of the Special Act.

2. It is unlawful for a person who is required to possess a certificate of competency, but who does not possess a current certificate of competency:

   a. to advertise to the public in a newspaper ad, airwave transmission, or a telephone directory, or by issuance of a card, or otherwise, that he/she is a contractor, or is qualified to engage in business as a contractor;

(b) to hold himself/herself out as a contractor, whether as a plaintiff, defendant or witness in any court in this County;

(3) It is unlawful for a contractor or a qualified business organization to fail to identify any of his/her vehicles used to transport materials and equipment to a job site. Identification shall be effectuated by placing upon said vehicles the contractor's name or symbol and certificate of competency number, in two locations;

(4) It is unlawful for a contractor to fail to include his/her certificate of competency number in any advertising to the public in a newspaper, magazine or other periodical, telephone directory display ad, airwave transmission, business card, pamphlet, or other advertising medium announcing, advertising, or promoting services regulated pursuant to the Special Act, excluding a single-line listing in a telephone directory

C. The following acts are prohibited:

(1) willful or deliberate disregard and violation of the applicable building codes or laws of the County or the State of Florida;

(2) aiding or abetting an uncertified person or business organization to evade any provision of the Special Act;

(3) knowingly combining or conspiring with an uncertified person with intent to evade the provisions of the Special Act;

(4) acting in the capacity of a contractor in any name other than that on the certificate and/or different from the scope of work for which he/she is certified to perform;

(5) diversion of funds or property received for prosecution or completion of a specified construction project or operating where, as a result of the diversion the contractor is or will be unable to fulfill the terms of his/her obligations or contract;

(6) failure in any material respect to comply with the provisions of the Special Act;

(7) failure to maintain insurance coverage as set by the CILB or required by state or federal regulations;

(8) falsification of application or testimony given before the CILB;

(9) abandonment of a construction project in which the contractor is engaged or under contract as a contractor. A project shall be considered abandoned after 30 days if the contractor terminates the project without written notification to the owner or the prospective owner without just cause, or fails to substantially perform work under the contract;

(10) signing a statement with respect to a project or contract falsely indicating that the work is bonded, falsely indicating that payment has been made for all subcontracted work, labor and material which results in a financial loss to the owner, purchaser or another contract, or falsely indicating that workers' compensation and public liability insurance are provided;

(11) a finding of proof and continued evidence that the certificate holder is guilty of fraud or deceit, gross negligence, incompetency and misconduct in the practice of contracting;

(12) subcontracting any work to any person, firm or business organization not holding a certificate of competency for work involved in the subcontract;

(13) obtaining a permit for any work in which the certificate holder does not actually supervise, direct and control the construction or installation covered by such permit;

(14) being convicted or found guilty, regardless of adjudication, of a crime in any jurisdiction which directly relates to the practice of contracting or the ability to practice contracting;

(15) failure to satisfy, within a reasonable time, the terms of a civil judgment obtained against the licensee relating to the practice of the licensee's profession.

(16) committing mismanagement or misconduct in the practice of contracting that causes financial harm to a customer. Financial mismanagement or misconduct occurs when:

1. Valid liens have been recorded against the property of a contractor’s customer for supplies or services ordered by the contractor for the customer’s job, the contractor has received funds from the customer to pay for the supplies or services, and the contractor has not had the liens removed from the property (by payment or by bond) within 75 days after the date of such liens;

2. The contractor has abandoned a customer’s job and the percentage of completion is less than the percentage of the total contract price paid to the contractor as of the time of abandonment, unless the contractor is entitled to retain such funds under the terms of the contract or refunds the excess funds within 30 days after the date the job is abandoned; or

3. The contractor’s job has been completed, and it is shown that the customer has had to pay more for the contracted job than the original contract price, as adjusted for subsequent change orders, unless such increase in cost was the result of circumstances beyond the control of the contractor, was the result of circumstances caused by the customer, or was otherwise permitted by the terms of the contract between the contractor and the consumer.

SECTION 3. CRIMINAL VIOLATIONS.

Any person who commits an act prohibited by Section 2 of this Ordinance may be charged with a first degree misdemeanor and may be punished accordingly. In accordance with the Florida Statutes § 489.127, any unlicensed person who commits a violation of section 2(A) of this Ordinance, after having been found previously guilty of such violation, commits a felony of the third degree.
SECTION 4. ISSUANCE OF NOTICE TO APPEAR

The investigators with the Contractor Certification Division are designated as code enforcement officers pursuant to Fla. Stat. Chapter 162. Pursuant to the authority set forth in Fla. Stat. Chapter 162, an investigator may issue a Notice to Appear at any hearing conducted by county court if the investigator, based upon personal investigation, has reasonable cause to believe that a locally licensed contractor or unlicensed contractor has committed a prohibited act set forth in Section 2 of this Ordinance. A Notice to Appear means a written order by an investigator in lieu of arrest requiring a person accused of violating the law to appear in a designated court at a specified date and time. Prior to issuing the Notice to Appear, the investigator shall provide written notice of the violation of this ordinance and shall establish a reasonable time period within which the person must correct the violation. Such time period shall be not less than 5 days and no more than 30 days. If upon personal investigation, the investigator finds that the person has not corrected the violation within the prescribed time period, a Notice to Appear may be issued to the person who committed the violation. The investigator is not required to provide a reasonable time period to correct if there is reason to believe that the violation presents a serious threat to the public health safety and welfare, or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible.

SECTION 5. APPLICABILITY

This ordinance shall apply to the unincorporated and incorporated areas of Palm Beach County pursuant to the Special Act, Article VIII and Fla. Stat. Chapter 489.

SECTION 6. ENFORCEMENT.

A. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the County from enforcing its codes and ordinances by any other means. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the CILB from exercising its full authority pursuant to the Special Act and Fla. Stat. Chapter 489.

B. The Director of the Contractor Certification Division and the CILB are authorized to inspect and audit the records of construction firms to determine compliance with this ordinance, the Special Act, and Fla. Stat. Chapter 489, based upon a reasonable suspicion that a violation of any law or ordinance has occurred.
C. The Director of the Contractor Certification Division and the CILB shall have the power to subpoena records, surveys, drawings, contracts or other materials regarding activities regulated by this Ordinance, the Special Act and Fla. Stat. Chapter 489, based upon a reasonable suspicion that a violation of any law or ordinance has occurred.

D. The Director of the Contractor Certification Division and the CILB shall have the power to subpoena telephone company records regarding telephone numbers used in advertisements or listings regarding regulated activity pursuant to this ordinance, the Special Act and Fla. Stat. Chapter 489, where address of the telephone number and/or name and address of the subscriber is unavailable to the investigator. The information obtained by subpoena shall be limited to the name of the person or entity who obtained phone service, the mailing address of the person or entity who obtained phone service, and the address where the phone line in question is located.

SECTION 7. REPEAL AND SAVINGS CLAUSE

Ordinance 86-8, as amended by Ordinance 86-25 and Ordinance 90-23 and Ordinance 94-5, is hereby repealed in its entirety. All other Ordinances in conflict with this Ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent of said conflict. However, all provisions of Ordinance 86-8, as amended, are preserved for the limited purpose of prosecuting violations of Ordinance 86-8, as amended, which violations were committed prior to the effective date of this Ordinance.

SECTION 8. SEVERABILITY

If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this ordinance is for any reason held by the Court to be unconstitutional, inoperative or void, such holding shall not affect the remainder of this ordinance.

SECTION 9. INCLUSION IN THE CODE OF LAWS AND ORDINANCES

The provisions of this ordinance shall become and be made a part of the Code of Laws and Ordinances of Palm Beach County, Florida. The sections of the ordinance may be renumbered or relettered to accomplish such, and the word “ordinance” may be changed to “section”, “article”, or any other appropriate word.

SECTION 10. EFFECTIVE DATE

The provisions of this ordinance shall become effective upon filing with the Secretary of State.

APPROVED AND ADOPTED by the Board of County Commissioners of Palm Beach County, on the _18th_ day of _November_, 1997.
