

Palm Beach County Planning, Zoning & Building Department

The Zoning Division maintains and periodically updates the current Policy and Procedure Manual's (PPM) to clarify Zoning procedures for Staff and for the Applicants to follow in order to maintain consistency in application procedures.

The Zoning Division also maintains a cross reference of all the Zoning PPM's to the Unified Land Development Code (ULDC) categorized by each Article.

Please follow the instructions below to access the PPM's in the Interactive Code.

1. Click on this link to access Zoning PPMs
2. Click on "I Agree"
3. Across the top header, click on the tab that says PPM
4. A listing of the Zoning PPMs will populate on the left hand pane, click on the specific PPM you would like to review.

Please note: PPM files are in adobe PDF and can be printed or saved to your computer.
