Capital Improvements Real Estate
& Inspection Services Division

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

QUALIFICATION APPLICATION

EMERGENCY REPAIR PROJECTS
REHABILITATION PROJECTS &
CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Capital Improvements, Real Estate, & Inspections Services Division of Palm Beach County Department of Housing & Economic Development (DHED) is responsible for the procurement of services for the use by the County and its independent beneficiaries. This qualification package is for general construction services to furnish all materials, labor, supervision, equipment, supplies, fees, expertise, and services on an as needed basis for various locations throughout the County.

The County is qualifying contractors for participation in DHED construction projects related to assisting eligible beneficiaries and households throughout the county funded through Federal and State funding sources. Invitations for Bids will be requested from prequalified contractors for various projects on a fixed price lump sum basis. Prequalification is required in order to be considered for awarding bids for the construction projects. No minimum number of projects for bidding is guaranteed.

Qualifying contractors will receive standard bidding package, specifications, and contract which will be used to bid and award the projects.

Completion of this application will give your company the opportunity to qualify with Palm Beach County DHED and be added to our current bidder's list for DHED funded projects. However, completing this application does not guarantee your company will receive a contract from the County, nor does it imply that your company has any type of procurement/contractual relationship with the County now or in the future.

This application must be completed without reference to any previous application or statement. All sections of the application must be completed. If any of the requested information does not apply, it must be indicated as "NONE" or "N.A." as applicable.

DHED will receive and review the application for prequalification once it is received. In the event DHED finds the application to be incomplete or does not contain the information requested for processing, DHED will request in writing that the applicant provide the necessary information. If the requested information is not furnished within 10 days of the written request, the application may be rejected.

If you should have any questions regarding this application package, contact David Lees at (561) 233-3658 or dlees@pbcgov.org The completed application should be submitted to:
