Victim Services stands as the beacon of hope and support for victims of sexual assault, intimate partner violence, homicide, and other violent crimes. We offer crisis response, advocacy, therapy, and community awareness programs. As the Certified Rape Crisis Center in Palm Beach County, our 52-member strong team operates across multiple office locations, including dedicated centers like the Sexual Assault Response Team Center on Australian Avenue and the Butterfly House at Wellington Regional Medical Center.

In our commitment to combat human trafficking, we co-lead the Human Trafficking Task Force with the Palm Beach County Sheriff’s Office. Additionally, we spearhead the Sexual Assault Response Team (SART), chair the Victim’s Rights Coalition, and are set to launch a coordinated community response to Intimate Partner Violence.

Last year, we provided services to about 5,000 victims and implemented targeted strategies to reduce sexual violence victimization and perpetration, focusing on specific demographics and collaborating with small businesses to address sexual violence and harassment. Our partnership with the PBC Office of Equal Business Opportunity has led to bi-monthly “Sexual Harassment and Workplace Culture” training for local small businesses.

Beyond our direct services, our outreach efforts reached 161 events in the community, amplifying awareness and providing crucial training.

For more information or assistance, please reach out to us at 561-355-2418 or our 24-hour crisis helpline at 866-891-7273.

Nicole Bishop, M.S.W.
Director, PBC Victim & Justice Services
WHO WE ARE
The Palm Beach County Human Trafficking Task Force was established in 2017, in part through funding provided by the Department of Justice. The Task Force was established to combat human trafficking in Palm Beach County through a collaborative, victim centered, trauma informed framework. Task Force partners include local, state, and federal law enforcement and prosecution agencies, local, state, federal, non-governmental, and faith-based victim service provider agencies, community stakeholders, and other invested partners. Collaborative efforts are directed toward identifying, rescuing, and restoring victims; investigating and prosecuting trafficking crimes; and building awareness about trafficking in and around our community.

“Presidents & Their First Ladies, Dramatically Speaking” is the creation of the veteran acting and writing team of husband and wife, William and Sue Wills. The couple is now in their 27th year of bringing to life the stories of 36 different Presidential couples. Amazingly, the Wills have appeared together on stage over 9,300 times.

They proudly present to us the story of our 39th President and First Lady: Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter.

From peanut farmer to Naval Officer, Governor of Georgia and the Presidency, Jimmy had beside him his loving wife Rosalynn, who truly was Jimmy’s chief advisor and partner. His four years in office were filled with many controversial decisions, high points (peace between Israel and Egypt) and low points (Iran Hostages).

Post-presidency, both continued to do good work around the world well into their 90s. President Clinton said of the Carters, “No one has done more good things for more people than any other couple on the face of the earth.”
