

Module #10 Assessment Questions

1. Storms are the most frequent reason for trees to experience failure.
 - True
 - False

2. Which of the following is not a reason for tree risk assessments to be performed?
 - A) To enhance public safety
 - B) To determine an accurate age of the tree
 - C) To promote tree longevity
 - D) To protect workers on the job site

3. If the diameter of the trunk of a tree increases as it goes upward you are unlikely to experience tree failure.
 - True
 - False

4. Tree stability may be affected by which of the following?
 - A) Replacement of sidewalks and root loss
 - B) Failure of nearby trees
 - C) Change in wind dynamics
 - D) All of the above

5. Fungal fruiting bodies forming at the base of a tree are a good indication of healthy soil.
 - True
 - False

This module, a part of the Strengthening our Community Tree Canopy Through Education, was made possible by a grant through the 2011 National Urban and Community Forestry Grant Program, the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, and the Florida Forest Service.