

Biology of Trees – Self Assessment

Palm Beach County Cooperative Extension Service
University of Florida / IFAS

Module #1 Assessment Questions

1. Trees in an urban setting tend to grow multiple leaders rather than single, central leaders.
 - True
 - False
2. Trees in natural setting have fewer targets in case of failure.
 - True
 - False
3. Trees in an urban setting tend to have codominants higher in their canopy.
 - True
 - False

This module, a part of the Strengthening our Community Tree Canopy Through Education, was made possible by a grant through the 2011 National Urban and Community Forestry Grant Program, the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, and the Florida Forest Service.

The Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS) is an Equal Opportunity Institution.