RE: Advisory Commission on Women 2023 Annual Report

On behalf of the Advisory Commission on Women (ACW), pursuant to Resolution No. R2018-0188 Section 4: Authority; Responsibilities; Duties; Subsection C, attached please find a summary of activities undertaken by the ACW during 2023.

Attachments:
Summary of ACW Activity 2023 (one page)

Summary of ACW Activity in 2023

The work of the County's Advisory Commission on Women (ACW) during 2023 focused largely on reviewing and reflecting on our stated mission; assessing opportunities for action that would make the most of the strengths and resources of our members for the benefit of our community; and gathering data that would drive our work for the coming year.

Our first meeting in February was a working session with Rita Barreto: community leader, respected organizational consultant and former board member of the Florida Commission on the Status of Women. Barreto shared perspective from her time on the state-level Commission, then facilitated dialogue around our county-level commission's existing opportunities for impact. Of note was a report commissioned by the Los Angeles County Commission for Women prepared by Mount Saint Mary's University that shared census data reflecting the status of women, which sparked conversations around areas that could benefit from focus and change.

The ACW members agreed to create a similar report to include national and local census data to help shine a light on the realities of women in our county. Members agreed to engage local universities in development of this report, as well as local organizations ranging from the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County, Inc., the Department of Children and Families and Compass, each of which may have census-quality data to help ensure the comprehensiveness of the information included. Once developed, the ACW would look to establish a speakers bureau-type presentation, allowing each member to take this report to meetings across our county, and raise the profile of issues and realities affecting Palm Beach County women and the people around them, while also raising awareness of the ACW and its mission.

Our April meeting focused primarily on discussion of a speakers bureau presentation draft in process by board member Jana Panarites, which would serve as a delivery system for the census data and other relevant information to be included and shared with the public.

Our June meeting was rescheduled for August, at which time Marilyn Stevens, a data dissemination specialist from the US Census Bureau shared information on census data, as well as tools to interpret and navigate the kind of data that would be useful in development of the ACW's proposed presentation. Ms. Jana Panarites agreed to continue to develop the PowerPoint presentation.

As the October meeting was cancelled, and the next meeting was ultimately set for early 2024, this concluded the scope of our activity for 2023. Although largely introspective, the ACW members viewed this 2023's activity as critical in charting our best course for future action, and agree that this direction offers our most comprehensive opportunity for communication and change around issues critical to women in our county. Finalizing a presentation for approval by the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners is an established goal for the 2024 calendar year.

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners of Palm Beach County, Florida (hereinafter "the Board") desires to continue to foster a supportive environment for all its citizens, including women; and

WHEREAS, Palm Beach County is a community where women of all ages can strive to achieve their fullest potential and the Board desires to foster and encourage their empowerment; and

WHEREAS, in order to promote this intention, the Board desires to create an advisory body to assist the Board and County Administration and its Departments and Divisions (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the County") on issues affecting women and girls.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA, THAT:

SECTION 1: CREATION

There is hereby created the Palm Beach County Advisory Commission on Women (hereinafter "Commission on Women").

SECTION 2: PURPOSE

The Commission on Women is a resource for issues pertaining to women of all ages, regardless of race, ethnic and cultural background, and socio-economic circumstance, who reside in Palm Beach County. - A. The Commission on Women shall be comprised of fifteen members, two appointed by each County Commissioner and one at-large appointed by majority vote of the Board. The Board may also appoint a youth (15-18 years of age) representative to serve as an ex-officio member. Members must be residents of Palm Beach County and should reflect, to the greatest extent possible, the demographic and geographic diversity in the County. Further, the Board shall endeavor to appoint members who represent the specific Commission on Women's focus, as well as experts in the field.

B. For the inaugural Commission on Women, each Commissioner shall appoint one member for a term of one year and one member for a term of two years. The at-large member shall be appointed for an initial term of two years. Thereafter, all appointments shall be made for a term of three years. If the Board appoints a youth member, the term is for one year.

C. All members shall serve at the pleasure of the Board.

SECTION 4: AUTHORITY; RESPONSIBILITIES; DUTIES

A. The Commission on Women is solely an advisory body established to focus on matters pertaining specifically to women including, but not limited to, discrimination, employment, education, healthcare, homelessness, and addictions. While the Commission on Women may suggest topics for review (and it is anticipated that it will do so through its annual report), its primary responsibility is to respond to the Board's requests for a study or some other involvement.

B. The Commission on Women should also:

1. Connect with women's organizations to obtain and share data, views and information of interest to the welfare of women, including the Florida Commission on the Status of Women and local agencies and public and private organizations having responsibilities and interests in areas of special concern to women.
2. Identify and recognize women's contributions to the County, especially regarding women who empower other women.
3. Make recommendations on how the County may address issues pertaining to socio-economic factors that impact women, the development of individual potential, and the encouragement of women to utilize their capabilities and assume leadership roles.
4. Recommend procedures, programs or legislation to promote equal rights and opportunities for all women.
5. Provide recommendations on positions the Board may take on local, state and federal legislation, if requested by the Board.
6. Assist in implementing Board-approved programs, if requested by the Board.
7. Disseminate information regarding resources, events, and programs that involve women's interests and concerns.

C. The Commission on Women shall prepare an annual report for presentation to the Board. The report shall contain a summary of the Commission on Women's activities, community involvement, collaborations with other like-minded organizations, and accomplishments, as well as copies of meeting agendas and minutes. The report may include suggestions for issues it believes worthy of study.

- D. All members shall comply with the Uniform Policies and Procedures governing advisory bodies as set forth in Resolution No. 2013-0193, and any amendments thereto. Members will be provided a copy of the resolution and are expected to become familiar with the various requirements, including the provision for automatic removal for lack of attendance, conduct of meetings, and compliance with state and local laws pertaining to financial disclosure and other requirements addressed in Section 5 below.
- E. The Commission on Women is not established to duplicate efforts that County programs and departments were established to address, such as those specific issues handled through legal channels set forth in the Equal Employment Ordinance and Housing and Places of Accommodation Ordinance. Further, it is also not within the scope of the Commission on Women to have a role in the investigation of complaints conducted by the Fair Employment Program under the County's Human Resources Department, nor on any matters arising from union contracts.
- F. No member shall represent the Commission on Women before any governmental body or before any public or private group unless authorized to do so by majority vote of the Commission on Women. However, a member may, in their individual capacity, speak about the mission of the Commission on Women as set forth in this resolution.

SECTION 5: SUNSHINE LAW; CODES OF ETHICS

- A. The Commission on Women is subject to Florida's Sunshine Law. Reasonable public notice of all meetings, including committees, shall be provided. All meetings shall be open to the public and minutes shall be taken. Records are subject to public disclosure.
