

Construction Industry Licensing Board

The Construction Industry Licensing Board (CILB) establishes qualifications and competency of the contractors that work within the county and provides for the testing and licensing of these contractors and is empowered to revoke licenses.

The CILB is responsible for approving all applications for certification examination, requests for change of status, and may take disciplinary action against a county certified contractor for violations of contractor certification laws.

Composition, Qualifications and Terms:

CILB is comprised of fifteen members representative of the construction industry and citizens within Palm Beach County. Members are appointed by the Board of County Commissioners and are composed as follows: two (2) general contractors; one (1) building contractor; one (1) residential contractor; one (1) architect, one (1) engineer, one (1) full-time building official who meets the requirements of the Building Officials Association of Florida, and is located within Palm Beach County; one (1) roofing contractor; one (1) swimming pool contractor; and three (3) consumer members. The basic term of office is three (3) years but no member shall service for more than two (2) consecutive terms, but may be re-appointed after a three (3) year hiatus.

If you have any interest in serving, please contact Ryan Perez at 561-233-5370 or rperez@pbc.gov.

Meetings are held on the fourth Monday of each month, or as need presents itself, at 2:00 p.m. at 2300 N. Jog Road in West Palm Beach.
