Application Insufficiency List Zoning/Agency Review

The new online application submittal process was launched in August of 2016. Since then, agents/users have made comments to staff about areas they would like clarification. A request for a list of reasons why staff may deem an application insufficient was recently voiced. In response, staff has provided a link below for a list of typical insufficiency reasons associated with the online process.

Please click on the link below to view the Insufficiency List.
